

WORKSHOP AGENDA

Digitalisation in Education: Challenges and Opportunities for Education Trade Unions

18 November 2020, 14:00-15:30

Interpretation: EN, FR, RU

Thanks for connecting to the meeting 15 minutes before the start

- 14:00 Opening by host
- Susan Flocken, ETUCE European Director
- 14:05 Welcome
- Odile Cordelier, Chair of the workshop, ETUCE Vice-President
- 14:10 Overview of the challenges of digitalisation in education for the teaching profession
- Martina Schmerr, Senior Political Advisor, GEW
- 14:20 ETUCE Secretariat activities on the topic of digitalisation in education
- Marie Raverdeau, ETUCE Programme Officer, Occupational Health & Safety and Digitalisation
- 14:25 Plenary discussion on the impact of digitalisation on the education sector and the challenges and opportunities for education personnel

Participants are invited to discuss the following questions:

- What has been the impact of the digitalisation of the education sector on education personnel's working conditions, professional autonomy, and occupational health and safety, and how to address the teaching professions' needs?

2020 ETUCE CONFERENCE

EI European Region

- How has the COVID-19 pandemic impacted the teaching profession with regards to online teaching?
- What are the risks of Artificial Intelligence, learning analytics, and data mining from the perspective of education trade unions?
- How can the use of digital tools contribute to more inclusive education systems?

15:25

Conclusions

- Odile Cordelier, ETUCE Vice-President